Moving Forward with Common Goals

Achieving Our Vision for Community Disability Services in Collaboration with the Government of Alberta

Alberta Council of Disability Services

160-3015 12 Street NE Calgary, AB T2E 7J2 (403) 250-9495 acds@acds.ca acds.ca

October 10, 2019

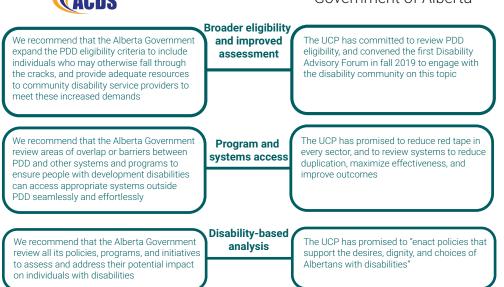

RESPECTFUL RELATIONSHIPS

ACDS Government of Alberta ACDS Government of Alberta Flexible. responsive We recommend that the Alberta Government The UCP has expressed that "the government We recommend that the Alberta Government The UCP has promised to "expand civil society A shared vision funding model should do more to help Albertans with efforts" and "be a champion of civil society collaborate with the Community Disability provide predictable and sustainable funding Services sector to articulate a shared vision. disabilities" and promised to "enact policies through long-term, flexible, inflation-adjusted groups". This commitment must ensure that common values, and a cohesive plan for that support the desires, dignity and choices contracts that reflect the full costs associated community organizations are properly of Albertans with disabilities" quality supports to achieve the full citizenship with providing quality supports resourced of individuals with disabilities Permanent Innovation We recommend that the Alberta Government The UCP has promised to create a $20 million supports forums for We recommend that the Alberta The UCP has committed to ongoing dialogue set aside annual funding to support community Civil Society Fund to support innovative dialogue by establishing the Disability Advisory Forum Government establish permanent forums disability service providers to test innovative programs delivered by community groups for dialogue with the Community Disability approaches Services sector to identify issues and develop effective policies Comprehensive The UCP recognises the vital role of We recommend that the Alberta Government We recommend that the Alberta Government Charter of human resource The UCP has established the Service Provider community organizations in delivering collaborate with community disability services engage with ACDS to draft a Disability engagement Partnership Committee to serve as a link strategy government-mandated services, and supports to develop a comprehensive HR strategy that Services charter with a common vision, between ACDS and Alberta Community and diverse strategies to address Alberta's needs includes competitive compensation, well-defined rules of engagement, and a Social Services for a skilled workforce, e.g., increasing post-secondary options for relevant training, commitment to transparency post-secondary choices, implementing and professional standards for all workers apprenticeship models, and skills upgrading (in service agencies and FMS) for new Canadians Access to We recommend that the Alberta Government disability The UCP ratified a resolution for a "more comprehensive data policy" for government gather and share comprehensive data related data information and data to disability programs, service projections, SEAMLESS AND INTEGRATED SYSTEMS ACDS Government of Alberta We recommend that the Alberta Government Contracting The UCP has promised to reduce bureaucratic work with community disability services to framework burdens in the nonprofit sector, such as those develop consistent, transparent and associated with renewal obligations, including Broader eligibility streamlined contracting process and moving to five-year agreements We recommend that the Alberta Government and improved The UCP has committed to review PDD expand the PDD eligibility criteria to include eligibility, and convened the first Disability assessment

Through collaboration, we can help Albertans with disabilities have excellent lives

usage and funding

reporting protocols

IMPACTFUL INVESTMENT