

Priorities Related to the Community Disability Services Sector Survey of Alberta NDP Leadership Candidates

About the Community Disability Services (CDS) Sector

The CDS sector is comprised of community disability service providers employing about 15,000 workers offering quality services to over 12,600 Albertans with developmental disabilities across Alberta. Funded by the Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) program, service providers are largely non-profit organizations that provide adults with developmental disabilities with home living, employment, community access, and specialized supports in their local communities.

Further reading about the CDS sector.

About ACDS (ACDS)

Established in 1972, ACDS is a non-profit association of over 140 community disability service providers. Our mission is to strengthen the CDS sector by being the collective voice of our members, advancing excellence and best practices, advocating for effective public policy, and championing professional disability services.

Further reading about ACDS:

- ACDS website
- About ACDS information sheet

CDS Sector Current Issues and Priorities

Related recently published ACDS documents:

- Sector Scanner 2023 featuring insights from sector leaders on what they sense are the most significant ongoing and upcoming challenges in the CDS sector.
- ACDS Survey 2023 \(summary\): Workforce Fundamentals: Vital information about the CDS sector workforce.
- Community Disability Services Sector Priorities 2023-2026: Detailing ACDS' priorities to guide our advocacy work for the Community Disability Services sector for the foreseeable future and how we will aim to achieve these priorities.

Additional ACDS research, reports, and advocacy briefs can be accessed here.

Your Priorities Related to the Community Disability Services Sector

ACDS is inviting all approved Alberta NDP leadership candidates to respond to our questions about their policy and program priorities as they relate to the CDS sector. Responses will be quoted directly and made available on our public website and other communication channels.

Please respond to the following questions:

1. What policies and programs will you introduce, and what existing policies and programs will you advance to support the quality of life of individuals with developmental disabilities?
2. How will you improve support to community disability service providers to help them serve individuals with developmental disabilities?
3. How will you address the Community Disability Services sector's current workforce crisis?

Contact Information

Send survey responses to Jasvir Chatha-Bains, Manager, Communications and Engagement: jasvir@acds.ca.

For questions, contact Andrea Hesse, CEO: andrea@acds.ca, (825) 901-1532.